

European Requirements on Improvement of Procedure of Concerted Actions Suspension in Ukraine

Z. Borysenko, Doctor of Economics, Professor

"KROK" University

borisenkozoya@ukr.net

Research Methodology. Methodological basis for the research consists of general scientific methods, i.e. logical generalization, dialectic method, methods of synthesis, induction, deduction, expert surveys. Informational basis is comprised of legislative decrees on competition policy in the EU and in Ukraine, as well as of long professional experience of the author in the Anti-Monopoly Committee of Ukraine.

Results. Concrete proposals are suggested as regarding to establishing of cooperation between Anti-Monopoly Committee of Ukraine and the EU in the context of competition protection.

Novelty. New theoretical and practical issues of the competition policy are studied.

Practical Significance. Suggestions made in the paper should be used for the improvement of competition legislative base and its implementation in Ukraine.