

Methodological Foundations of the Formation and Management of Economic Security System of Tourism Enterprises

*A. Snigyr, External PhD student, Financial and Economic Security Management Department
«KROK» University
artur.snigir@gmail.com*

Research Methodology: By means of systemic approach the methodological basis for the formation and management of tourism enterprises economic security are studied. For determination of the algorithm of formation and management of economic security system of tourism enterprises the system analysis and logical method was used, and for the factors of external and internal environment of their functioning methods of induction and deduction were applied.

Results: The algorithm of formation and management of economic security of tourism enterprises, taking into account the specific features of their operation and management peculiarities is formed. The analysis of management system processes relating to economic security of tourism enterprises is made. The basic principles of economic security management system of tourism enterprises are defined. Peculiarities of resources and measures use to manage the system of economic security of tourism enterprises.

Novelty: The author's method on formation of economic security system of tourism enterprises is developed. The components of the indicated method are the algorithm of formation and management of economic security of tourism enterprises, approaches to: definition of the elements of the tourism enterprises security system, definition of the principles, resources and activities for the management of the economic security system of tourism enterprises.

Practical Significance: Implementation of the proposed method of formation and management of the system of economic security will enhance economic security and enable the following tasks: monitoring, forecasting, early detection and removal of threats to the economic security of enterprises; quickly identify the causes and conditions conducive to application of financial and material damage, disruption of the normal functioning and development etc. The result of methodically properly implemented method is the stability and efficiency of the tourism enterprise, and the security of its subjects and objects of management.