

Theoretical legal bases of providing rights on safe for life and health environment

Koroleva V.V., Ph. D of law, associate professor,

University of economic and law “KROK”

090661@ukr.net

Research Methodology: With system-structural method the mechanism of ensurance of human and civil rights to secure for life and health environment in Ukraine is analyzed. Legalistic method was used to characterize the legal and regulatory provisions on environmental rights and their welfare.

Results: The level of human rights and citizen's safe for life and health of the environment in Ukraine was analyzed. It was determined that there is a problem on the division of powers between the executive authorities and local self-government. It was proposed to transfer to local authorities some of the powers of regional state administrations. As it is in accordance with the requirements of the Concept of reforming local government and territorial organization of power in Ukraine.

Novelty: It was proposed the directions of perfection of the mechanism cooperation between state authorities and local government to ensure the right to a safe life and health of the environment in Ukraine.

The practical significance: The results can be used to improve the system of legal acts regulating the activities of state and local authorities, to ensure the right to a safe life and healthy environment in Ukraine.