

Main aspects of pharmaceutical activity state control in Ukraine

O.M. Pyzhov, the student, head of Students' Scientific Society of College of economics, law and information technology at «University of economics and law «KROK» pyzhov96@ukr.net

Research methodology. Achievements of agricultural science in the sphere of pharmaceutical activity state control in Ukraine are analyzed in the article by means of cognition and generalization methods.

Conclusions. Generalized idea of pharmaceutical activity state control as separate type of economic activity in Ukraine is determined in the article; participants of administrative and economic relations in the sphere of pharmaceutical activity state control and meaning of such relations are accurately described here.

Recommendations on improvement of economic legislation in the sphere of state control are given in the study.

Novelty. Generalized concept of pharmaceutical activity state control in Ukrainian legal doctrine is named for the first time.

Practical significance. Conclusions and achievements of the article can be used by research lawyers and dispensers for the further development of such subject-matters in the scope of European integration process and conditions of world globalization.