

Materials of the Russia Empire intelligence – as the source of the history of law Ukraine

*BV Bernadskii, PhD., Associate Professor of Theory and History of State and Law,
University of Economics and Law “KROK”
Bogdan_71@ukr.net*

Research Methodology. Using historical and analytical methods and sources are considered the source material cost of special services of the Russian Empire in the history of law in Ukraine.

Results. Despite many questionable data, in general, documents and materials of the Russian special services can solve many scientific problems of history of law in Ukraine. These sources have a high degree of representativeness, and therefore underestimate their importance can not be reported at each fact needs certainly scrutiny.

Novelty. Done Source study analysis of intelligence material in the context of empire state history and law of Ukraine.

The practical significance. The proposed publication outlined framework of large-scale exposition, which remains insufficient scientific and educational programs, synthetic studios, students and literature. Appropriate to apply the results obtained in scientific and educational spheres.