

The essence and content of economic security of educational institutions

*L.P.Snigir, applicant, Financial and Economic Security Management Department
«KROK» University
l.snigir88@gmail.com*

Methodology study. Using a systematic approach examines the concept of economic security of educational institutions, its essence and content; considered a number of real threats and methods to overcome them, which is inherent in the economic security of educational institutions.

Results. The process of formation of the nature and content of economic security of educational institutions today. The basic principles that allow resist threaten the economic security of the education system for its economic stability.

Novelty. The essence and content of economic security of educational institutions. We suggest that economic security of educational institutions depends on the ability of management to avoid and prevent potential threats to eliminate the negative effects and phenomena that could affect the activity as the subject of the economy. It is proved that the level of economic security of educational institutions depends on how effectively institutions prevent internal and external threats, and eliminate the consequences of their negative impact on the functioning of institutions. Determined that ensure economic security of educational institutions is one of the pressing problems of today.

Practical significance. Consists in the improvement of the system of economic security by introduction of principles and effective instruments, providing of the proper economic strength of educational establishments security, in modern terms. Improving the economic security of educational institutions depends on the ability to adequately respond to the imbalance and economic stability, oppose threats timely and effective reorganization of the structure and functioning of the system.